Sam just finished his degree and landed a new job. Kevin and Beth decided to break up. Sarah gave the landlord notice that she's moving out. Ellen's position at her company was eliminated. Ryan and Meg are now engaged. Mark's dad died last month. In the face of each change, we are naturally tentative. We look back with disappointment and pride, and look ahead with excitement and hesitation.

So how do we go about Finding Answers with Faith? Catholic tradition gives us the framework to embrace transition and the freedom to ask: What Next?

Come and be encouraged by the stories of others who have faced significant times of transition. Pray together, talk in small groups, take time for silent reflection or spiritual direction, visit with old friends, meet new ones and celebrate a Catholic Mass. Discover tools of discernment and resources of support through thought-provoking presentations by others in their 20s and 30s.

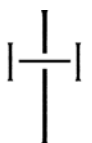

"I know well the plans I have for you... plans to give you a future full of hope."
